CONFIRM BUCH-SCHROEDER NUPTIALS.

Word received last evening by Mrs. Hans Schroeder, 224 Twentieth street, confirms the report of her daughter's marriage to Ralph Buch of Davenport which took place Sunday. As stated in The Argus the young people left the city leaving notes saying that they had left the city with the intention of being married, but giving no details as to the place or time. Mrs. Buch writes her mother that the wedding has been celebrated and that they are now in Springfield visiting the state fair, but again fails to state the city where the marriage was performed.

MRS. HILL COMES WEEK OCT. 8.

The conference extension lectures held under the auspices of the City Missionary union will be given again this year by Mrs. Hattie L. Hill of New York City, who gave the course last year with such great success. The series of lectures will begin Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Oct. 8, at the First Methodist church and will continue through the week each afternoon at 2:30 including Friday, Oct. 13, Tuesday and Thursday evening of that week evening lectures at 7:30 will be given by Mrs. Hill and the meetings will be open to women and men. The afternoon hour will open with bible study followed by the discussion of the home and foreign books. The evening lectures are arranged to accommodate those who cannot attend the afternoon meetings and they will be popular in character and most helpful.

Mrs. Hill is being greeted by large audiences wherever she has appeared and has greatly pleased and helped those who have heard her. She was in charge of the series of lectures given by the Missionary Union last fall and her talks were most helpful and inspiring. Officers of the association are urging that women make a special effort to hear her at the afternoon hours for they cannot help but be benefited.

The City Missionary union is composed of societies from the Broadway Presbyterian, First Methodist, Memorial Christian, First Baptist, United Presbyterian, Central Presbyterian, Spencer Memorial Methodist and South Park Presbyterian churches, and is formed for the purpose of promoting mission work and to have closer cooperation among the churches.

F. P. MISSION SOCIETY.
An interesting meeting of the Woman's Missionary society of the United Presbyterian church was held yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Frederica Frederick entertaining in her home, 1125 Nineteenth street. Home missions as an educational force was the subject of the afternoon discussion, each of the members reading a portion of the chapter. The business before the society was routine in nature.

E. O. W. CLUB ENTERTAINED.
E. O. W. Club members enjoyed the afternoon yesterday as the guests of Mrs. A. J. Burke, 1000 Seventeenth avenue. The ladies spent a delightful afternoon together over their fancy work and in the late day the hostess served a fine lunch. Flowers of the season trimmed the house. The club will meet Oct. 3 with Mrs. Edward Behrens, 4240 Twelfth street.

GUILD DECIDES SALE DATE.
At the first fall meeting of Trinity guild of Trinity Episcopal church held yesterday at the parish house with Miss Clara Whitman as hostess, Wednesday, Dec. 6, was agreed upon as the time of the annual fall sale. The guild will meet next Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. J. M. Kaiser, 1115 Nineteenth street.

INDOOR PICNIC DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR.
An affair that was thoroughly enjoyed and which was very successfully carried out was the indoor picnic held yesterday at Memorial hall in the court house and given by the Woman's Relief corps No. 66, Barbara Frieche relief, daughters of Veterans, for old comrades and Sons of Veterans. A company of 200 people was present for the program which followed the serving of supper from 6:20 to 7:30. During the afternoon music on the Edison machine given through the courtesy of M. L. Parker, Davenport, was enjoyed and in the evening the new post band furnished music. The formal program opened with the singing of "America" and the audience, Miss Violet Pascoe gave a reading, Mrs. M. J. Horsikamp a vocal solo, Mrs. Faye Hough-McCarthy a reading and Miss Isora VanDolah a vocal number.

The hall was gay with bunting and flags and flowers trimmed the supper tables.
MRS. DAVIS RECEIVES COMMITTEES.
Entertaining at the first of a series of three afternoon parties, Mrs. T. R. Davis as president of the Rock Island Woman's club yesterday received executive committees of the club in her home, 605 Twenty-sixth street, proving as always a charming hostess. A company of 50 was received and the ladies enjoyed the afternoon discussing plans for the year's work in the club while they occupied their fingers with needlework. The parlors were inviting with their decorations of Aaron Ward roses, in the living room and library were pink and white snapdragons and roses and in the dining room the table covered with a handsome flax cloth had its centerpiece a filigree vase filled with Killarney roses. A two course lunch was served during the afternoon and the affair was delightfully informal.

Mrs. Davis is entertaining other committees this afternoon and again tomorrow afternoon.
WEDNESDAY 500 CLUB.
Mrs. Harry Barnett at her home in Davenport yesterday entertained the Wednesday 500 club at the fortnightly meeting. Three tables were surrounded and prizes in the contests went to Mrs. Lucy Morris, Mrs. H. R. Planch and Mrs. Harry Rogers, all of this city. Lunch was served at the card tables after the games and the club adjourned to meet in two weeks with Mrs. Clarence Creitz of Davenport.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED AT PARTY.
The Misses Katherine and Cornelia Walker delightfully entertained a number of ladies Monday evening at their home in Milan in honor of their sister Carrie's birthday. Pink and white decorations were used throughout the house. During the serving of dainty refreshments little pink bags, each containing beans and some small articles, were passed to the guests. Mrs.

Very Rev. Father Flannigan reading the ceremony and celebrating the mass.

The bride was attended by her sister Miss Linda Cornio, and Earl Mackenzie, brother of the groom, was best man, as the party entered the church to the music of the wedding march. It was a rose pink wedding. The bride was in a dainty gown of white

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS

MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) There is a young man who comes once in a while to call upon me. He acts very foolish and silly and sometimes even rude. He makes me nervous and I talk cross to him. After he has gone I repent for the way I have talked to him. If I apologize, the next time he acts as silly as ever. The other girls notice it and it makes them mad, too. What shall I do?

(2) When a boy calls on a girl should he tell her that he has had a good time, and should she tell him to come again?

(3) Should girls get up a picnic and ask boys, or should they let the boys suggest it first?

(4) I am a junior in high school and my nickname is "Jimmie." Should the boys call me that or am I too old?

(5) There is a boy who calls upon me sometimes. When he is here he sings songs and uses my name and his name in place of the ones supposed to be used. I resent this and have told him so, but he does not heed. What shall I do to make him stop? I have told him time and time again not to do it.

(6) The boy will not stop being silly because you are cross, but if you appeal to his pride and let him know what you and other people think of his silliness he will stop. Some time when you are alone with him tell him that you like him because of certain qualities which you really do admire. Mention the qualities and get him in a pleasant mood. Then tell him that you think he would be much better liked by everyone if he would stop being silly. Say that other people as well as you think he would be much nicer if he didn't try to be funny.

(7) It is all right to go through the ceremony, but it is not necessary because both the girl and the boy take it for granted that the other feels that way.

(8) It is usually better to let the boys suggest it, but if they have taken the girls a great many places it is all right for the girls to have a picnic and invite them.

(9) You are not too old—one is

H. B. Honens of Oak Park, Ill., found in her bag the announcement of the engagement of Miss Carrie to T. J. Reynolds of Philadelphia, Pa. In the contest which consisted of making the most words from the surnames of the bride and groom to be, Mrs. J. H. Crisswell won first prize and Miss Millie Hinderer second. A most enjoyable evening was spent.

LADIES SPEND DAY QUILTING.
Members of Ladies Aid society of the Second Christian church gathered at the church yesterday afternoon and spent the time quilting. They were served with light refreshments after work was laid aside.

JUNIORS' PENNY PARTY.
Some time since the Juniors of the South Park Presbyterian church were given 50 pennies which they were to make grow. Yesterday the association had its weekly meeting at the church and at this time turned in the money which they had collected which amounted to $7.75. Each child told of the manner in which he had earned the money and to those who had increased their original amount to $1 was given a subscription to either "Over Sea and Land" or the Christian Endeavor World. After the program the young people fished from a pond for little favors with which they were delighted and they were served light refreshments.

SOPHS HAVE SPREAD AT LINWOOD.
Forty sophomores of Augustana left the N. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon at 8:30, going by automobiles to Linwood, where they were to have a spread. The big Velle car and several smaller cars took the happy crowd to the down-river hostelry, and there they were served with a sumptuous supper. A big bonfire was built on the river bank and gathered around it the company toasted marshmallows and told stories and had a fine time. At 10 o'clock the machines took the young folks to Buffalo and then back to the city.

never too old for pleasant nicknames. (5) Don't try to make the boy stop. He is not serious when he sings the songs and so you should not take him seriously.
Dear Mrs. Thompson: I have known a girl since my childhood and I like her very much, but somehow we stopped speaking and she moved out of my neighborhood. I happened to see her last night at a theatre when I was with a couple of my friends. I asked one of them to ask her if it would be all right to walk home with her. She replied "Yes." I became interested in the pictures and did not notice their leaving until I saw my friend leave. When I saw him I asked him where he went. He asked me why I didn't come and walk home with the girl. He also told me that she asked for me. Do you think the girl is serious? Do you think she really likes me?
JOHN.
I believe the girl likes you or she would not have said you could see her home. Telephone her and tell her that you are sorry that you did not notice her leaving and ask permission to take her somewhere.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I have been invited to a surprise birthday party at a boy's house. What should I give him for a present? All the boys and girls are going to give him something.
LOUISE.
A book will be the most appropriate thing you can give him.
Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am in love with a young man who seems to love me, too, but he goes with other girls. Do you think he would do this if he really loved me?
DOT.
If he loved you as much as he should to marry you, he would not go with other girls.

their alternates, Charles Ego, A. J. Roak, E. P. Thompson, E. L. Galt and W. E. Shoiter. Election of moderator and other officers of the presbytery is the business at the spring session of the body.

There Is Only ONE Genuine HOLLAND RUSK (Sold Only in This Package)

It is so good that others try to imitate it and some grocers, not many, try to substitute the imitations when the customers call for Holland Rusk—because they can buy the imitations cheaper and make a larger profit.

Look for the Windmill on the package and the words Holland Rusk—both are protected by copyright. When you eat the genuine Holland Rusk—you have the best money can buy—made only of the best and purest ingredients to be purchased—made in a sanitary factory by a special process and sold at as low a price as good wholesome food can be and make a legitimate and reasonable profit.
